

Appendix J – Definitions of Indigenous Vegetation Clearance

Te Tai o Poutini Plan

INDIGENOUS VEGETATION CLEARANCE	means the clearing or removal of indigenous vegetation by any means, including cutting, crushing, cultivation , irrigation, chemical application, drainage, stopbanking, overplanting, or burning.
--	---

Selwyn District Plan

INDIGENOUS VEGETATION	A naturally occurring community containing vascular plants, bryophyte or lichens that are native to the ecological district.
INDIGENOUS VEGETATION CLEARANCE	The clearing, modification or removal of indigenous vegetation by any means, including over-grazing/trampling , cutting, crushing, cultivation , spraying, irrigation, chemical application, artificial drainage, stop banking, overplanting , over sowing , burning, shading or invasion.

Southland District Plan

Clearance, modification or removal of indigenous vegetation	means the felling, clearing or modification of any indigenous vegetation by cutting, crushing, cultivation (including direct drilling), spraying, burning, overgrazing, mob stocking or the planting of exotics within.
--	--

