Choose your preferred option for the Council and the future of local government in the south

Please tick one.

- ☐ Option 1: No Head Start – stay involved with the Local Government Commission's review of Southland.
- ☐ Option 2: One council for Southland – combined into a single unitary authority (council).
- ☐ Option 3: Two councils for Southland – create two unitary authorities (councils), one in Invercargill and one combining the Southland and Gore District Councils.
- ☐ Option 4: A rural council across Southland and Otago – Gore joins with the Southland, Clutha, Waitaki and Central Otago districts to form a single rural unitary authority (council).
- ☐ Option 5: Other – is there another scenario for the structure of local government in the south that you feel would work? Tell us below.

Your idea or any other comments

If you ticked Option 5, tell us about your scenario here. You're also welcome to add any other comments.
